

NEON BELLY

90s & 2000s Hard Rock, Metal & Grunge

Franklin / Nashville, Tennessee

Neon Belly is a Franklin/Nashville-area rock band built around the music that defined the 1990s and 2000s: hard rock, grunge, metal, and alternative rock. The set is loud, high-energy, and audience-focused, leaning on songs a room already knows by heart while carrying enough weight to stand apart from a standard bar-rock night. Five players, one shared record collection, and a set built to hold a room for a full night.

THE SOUND

Alice in Chains, Metallica, Nirvana, Stone Temple Pilots, Tool, Soundgarden, Foo Fighters, AC/DC, Pearl Jam, Judas Priest

“Neon Belly tore it up, the bar was packed wall to wall.”
